Only have a few days in Irvine or have guests visiting? Make sure that you and your guests don't miss out on some of the most delicious, Instagrammable, and unique dishes that this town has to offer with this guide to Irvine's must-try dishes. From cool desserts to mouthwatering lunches, this list is made up of some seriously fun eats.

THE BREAKFAST REPUBLIC'S CLUCK MADAME

Located across the street from UC Irvine, the Breakfast Republic is heaven for brunch enthusiasts. Their eggs benedicts are some of the best in town, especially their Cluck Madame, which puts a French twist on the classic with bechamel sauce and gruyere cheese. The super buttery and savory house potatoes that come on the side are perfect for dragging through the hollandaise sauce.

4213 Campus Drive, Irvine.
